			Regional Conservation Agency	Aaron Hake	Yes	Public meetings and public records: RCA adheres to the practices and procedures of RCTC in administering public meetings and public records. They are managed by the same staff. If the Clerk of the Board's operations are ADA compliant for RCTC then they are therefore compliant for RCA.
			RCA Reserve Management / Monitoring Manager	Tricia Campbell	Yes	In terms of working at the RCTC/RCA, I do not see anything that would discriminate against someone with a disability. We manage natural lands and any trails that are present at the time we acquire the land remain, but they are not regional or recognized trails and they are not advertised as recreational opportunities. They may or may not be ADA compliant. Our mandate is that we can keep any existing "trails" but we are not allowed as a Permittee of the MSHCP to upgrade trails.

For example, when purchasing new equipment or furniture, RCTC should ensure that people with disabilities will receive the same level of service or the same opportunities as those without disabilities. RCTC should require accessibility reviews of designs for new construction or renovation projects for compliance to ADA Standards
