

ADA NON-DISCRIMINATION NOTICE

In accordance with the requirements of Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 and Title II of the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) of 1990, as well as other applicable law, the Riverside County Transportation Commission (RCTC) will not discriminate or exclude individuals on the basis of race, color, ethnic group identification, ancestry, national origin, age, gender/sex, sexual orientation, income status, mental or physical disability, medical condition, genetic information, marital status, or religion in admission to its programs, services, or activities, in access to them, in treatment of, or in any aspect of operations.

Further, RCTC will not tolerate discrimination by a RCTC employee or recipient(s) of Federal funds such as cities, counties, contractors, consultants, suppliers, planning agencies, or any other recipient(s) receiving federal aid assistance.

Employment: RCTC does not discriminate in its hiring or employment practices and complies with all applicable laws and regulations, including but not limited to, Title VII of the Civil Rights Act, Title II of the ADA, and the California Fair Employment and Housing Act.

Effective Communications: RCTC will generally, upon request, provide appropriate aids and services leading to effective communication for qualified persons with disabilities so they can participate equally in RCTC's programs, services, and activities, including qualified sign language interpreters, documents in Braille, and other ways of making information and communications accessible to people who have speech, hearing or vision impairments.

Modifications to Policies and Procedures: RCTC will make all reasonable modifications to policies and procedures to ensure that all people have an equal opportunity to enjoy all of its programs, services, and activities. For example, individuals with service animals are welcomed in RCTC offices, even where pets are generally prohibited.

Anyone who requires an auxiliary aid or translation service for effective communication, or a modification of policies or procedures to participate in a program, service, or activity of RCTC, should contact RCTC at (951) 787-7141. Requests must be received no later than 48 hours before the scheduled event. RCTC will take reasonable steps to ensure that all individuals have meaningful access to programs, services, and information free of charge. RCTC will not place a surcharge on a particular individual with a disability or any group of individuals with disabilities to cover the cost of providing auxiliary aids/services or reasonable modifications of policy, such as retrieving items from locations that are open to the public but are not accessible to persons who use wheelchairs.

Complaints against a RCTC program, service or activity not accessible to persons with disabilities should be directed to the RCTC ADA Coordinator and follow the established grievance procedures to address these complaints.
